

Fall Events

FLIGHT NIGHT STEM EXPLORATORIUM

September

An day for middle school students to experience hands-on STEM activities.

October

High school students compete in engineering challenges modeled after The Hunger Games.

November

Students complete a series of challenges using drones that they construct.

2nd Tuesdays

TRSA is taking over the St. Francis Children's Hospital with STEM fun!

2nd Tuesdays

Informal opportunities to learn about STEM before school.

September

Middle school students construct marble roller coasters in order to compete for cash prizes.

November

Teachers present students with questions, and students discover their answers.

December

Participants build gingerbread replicas of famous architectural buildings.