

Spring Events

January

K-12 Students from all over the Tulsa area are invited to build remote-controlled underwater robots.

March

K-12 students build boats using only cardboard & duct tape, which they will then race across the length of a pool.

April

A day for high school seniors who are committing to study engineering in college to come together to sign letters of intent.

January

An event for high school girls to learn about and network with people from underrepresented groups in STEM.

SONIA KOVALEVSKI DAY

February

An all-day girls' event designed to inspire the next generation of female STEM professionals.

April

In 2017, the city-wide kite festival is expanding into a state-wide festival.